

20 May 1983

AGENDA

SEMINAR ON DISRUPTING HEROIN SUPPLIES TO THE U.S:
DOES IT MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

0900 - 0930	Coffee
0930 - 1000	Introductory remarks by Mr. John McMahon, Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, and David D. Gries, National Intelligence Officer for Narcotics
1000 - 1100	Consideration of a case study on the disruption of supplies from Turkey, Moderator, [REDACTED]	25X1
1100 - 1115	Break
1115 - 1215	Consideration of a case study on disruption of supplies from Mexico, Moderator, [REDACTED]	25X1
1215 - 1330	Lunch in the Executive Dining Room Remarks by Dr. Carlton Turner, Director of the Drug Abuse Policy Office
1330 - 1415	Consideration of a case study on disruption of supplies from Southeast Asia, Moderator, [REDACTED]	25X1
1415 - 1500	Group discussion of conclusions reached during consideration of case studies, Moderator, [REDACTED]	25X1
1500 - 1515	Break
1515 - 1630	Discussion on the implications of possible disruptions to the U.S. market and the likelihood of achieving them, Moderator, [REDACTED]	25X1
1630 - 1700	Summation by [REDACTED] Comments by David Gries Closing remarks by Mr. William Casey Director of Central Intelligence	25X1
	Refreshments

SECRET

Agenda for 20 May Heroin Disruption Conference

0900-0930	Coffee
0930-1000	DDCI/Introduction
1000-1100	Case Study: Disruption of Supply from Turkey
1100-1115	Break
1115-1215	Case Study: Disruption of Supply from Mexico
1215-1330	Lunch in EDR Remarks by Dr. Carlton Turner
1330-1415	Case Study: Disruption of Supplies from SEA
1415-1500	Discussion/Conclusions re Case Studies
1500-1515	Break
1515-1600	Discussion: Implications/Impact of Disruptions to US Market
1630- 1600-1700	DCI/Summary Wine/Cheese

SECRET